

STATE NEWS

AMERICAN FORK.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Swenson and Mrs. John Swenson, who are visiting in American Fork this week, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilde. Ed. Faxman, a nephew of Esther Christensen, one of American Fork's most popular young ladies, was married in the Salt Lake City temple Saturday. The wedding supper was given in honor of the young couple at the home of Mrs. A. F. Adams, the bride's sister, in the evening.

Albert Bink and Miss Cora Pulley were quietly married Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pulley, in the first ward. A reception was given to the young couple, to which the near relatives and a few friends were invited.

Mrs. Mabel Reese and baby of Salt Lake are visiting relatives this week in American Fork.

Mrs. C. H. Rayburn of Los Angeles, formerly Miss Clara Nelson of Spanish Fork, spent the week in American Fork the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Wilde.

Mrs. John Hendrickson of Nephi is visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Grant, for a week or two. Miss Rose Stringham of Mantt, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Storr, returned home the fore part of the week.

George Turner of Provo was in American Fork the fore part of the week. Vern Larson and Miss Libbie Chadwick, both of this place, were visiting with the young couple at Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick's last night.

Miss Bertha Turner is home again after spending the summer in Salt Lake and Ogden.

Miss Minnie Beck has returned after spending the past month or two visiting relatives in different parts of the state.

Mrs. Robert Ashby, wife of the principal of the Alpine schools, presented her husband with a baby girl Tuesday morning. Mother and babe doing well.

Miss Josephine Sundman and Mrs. Marie Featherstone, of Lehi, were visiting in American Fork Wednesday. Miss Marie Featherstone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Featherstone of Lehi. She is now attending the University of Utah.

Mrs. William Chadwick is very ill at her home in the second ward. Mrs. Sadie Wagstaff went to Charleston today for an extended visit.

LEHI.

Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple William E. Whipple and Maude L. Rocker were married. In the evening a reception was held at the residence of William E. Rocker, after which a party was given in the Commercial club.

Next Thursday evening the Commercial club will give its first annual ball in the city pavilion. It will be an invitation affair.

Miss Lulu Trane is visiting friends in Salt Lake City this week. Alfred C. Johnson of Provo and Miss Josephine Brown of Lehi were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday and were tendered a reception in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilde.

Arthur Brader and wife and John St. John and wife, who went to the Utah resort, returned without having made things on land for which they drew lucky numbers.

Friday evening a number of friends of Miss Julia A. D. D. returned from a party. Games were indulged in and refreshments served.

Emmanuel Olson, wife of Draper removed to Lehi.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Osterloh have returned from a trip to California, where he will continue to reside.

John Roberts, Jr., left the fore part of the week for California, where he will continue to reside.

John Roberts, who has been on the coast for some time, returned to Lehi.

Linger Longer club at her home Wednesday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers. About twenty young people made merry the evening with games and music. Daily refreshments were served.

Miss Nellie Thurgood of Eureka is visiting with friends in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodge Marshall have left for California, where they expect to reside for the present.

Mrs. J. W. Bailey entertained a number of her lady friends Tuesday evening at her home, 51 S. Fourth street, in honor of Mrs. Nellie Thurgood of Eureka. A pleasant afternoon was passed in social chat. Refreshments were served.

The Provo Commercial club entertained the members of the experimental farm commission on their recent visit to our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Colorado spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Graham.

The Nineteenth Century club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Sam Schwab, on Academy avenue, on Friday afternoon for the third meeting of this season. The following excellent papers were given: "Emancipation Struggles," by Mrs. Buckle; "Vacation Echoes," by Miss Hirs; "Thomas Ruggles left Wednesday for Blackfoot, Idaho, for a few days' visit.

MANTT.

John H. Standfield and Alvina Jensen, both of Mantt, were married this week at the court house by Deputy Clerk J. H. Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen and Olga Westerson were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Westerson. The ceremony was performed by Bishop L. C. Kjar of the Mormon church. The groom was formerly a resident of Ephraim.

Fred Barile of Wales and Rosina A. Major of Eureka, Bux Elder and wife were married early this week by Deputy Clerk J. H. Knapp.

Edith Pearson is the guest of her brother, A. C. Pearson.

Mrs. W. S. Wilkes of Heber is the guest of Mrs. N. C. Clark.

Thomas Webb left for the east Monday.

Miss Lizzie Betts, bookkeeper for the Lehi Mercantile company, is spending a week's vacation with relatives in Payson.

A social picnic party was given by the Y. M. C. A. of the fourth ward Tuesday evening in the large assembly room was transformed into a perfect garden with its floral decorations and long tables laden with fruit and melons, of which was most artistically arranged.

Miss Estelle Bennett left Friday for Baltimore, Md., where she will spend the next few years studying music.

Miss Sarah Giles has returned home after a couple of weeks spent visiting friends in Idaho.

Miss Beulah Bachman is home again after an absence of two months spent visiting through California and Oregon. She is looking well and reports a most delightful visit.

Miss Lottie Walker, accompanied by Miss Grace Dunn visited her parents in American Fork Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hyrum Jensen, formerly of this city but now residing at Nephi, was visiting with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Adams, for a few days this week.

Mrs. Louisa McBride has returned from a most enjoyable trip to Provo.

Miss Cora Ward left the first of the week for Mt. Pleasant, where she has accepted a position as a teacher in one of the district schools of that place.

Mrs. W. H. Adams is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. H. Adams, in Denver for a few weeks.

The young ladies of the M. I. A. of the fifth ward gave a very pleasing social at their ward house Tuesday evening. Games, refreshments and dancing were enjoyed by a large number of young people of the ward.

Senator Smith was accompanied by Congressman Howell and Postmaster Clove, together with two newspaper representatives, left Friday morning for an outing, extending to the Grand Canyon. The party will be chaperoned by Marysville by Hon. E. D. Woolley of Arizona, who has been largely instrumental in working up the trip. He has also in the congressional delegate from Arizona and other leading citizens of neighboring territory, who will meet the party in the Grand Canyon, and probably of the strip, that Utah wants ceded from Arizona.

Miss Edith Irvine has returned to her home in Salt Lake City after a month's visit with relatives and friends in Provo. She will be in the city for a few days this week with her sister, Mrs. Ferre in Payson.

Miss Sadie Graham spent Sunday in Payson visiting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Minnison.

Mrs. Edith Martin returned home Thursday after a pleasant week spent with friends in Ogden and Salt Lake City.

Mrs. June Jones, sister of the late Kensington Thursday afternoon at her home, 41 South Second East in honor of Mrs. Edward Curtis of Grand Island, Neb. The house was artistically arranged with flowers. Refreshments were served and the evening was enjoyed by all.

Friday evening a social gathering was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Wilde. Games were indulged in and refreshments served. The evening was a most successful one.

Mrs. Edward Harding entertained at an informal luncheon at her home Thursday "Terribly About the Temple." The party was present to partake of their hostess' hospitality.

The Frisella Art club were entertained on Thursday evening by Miss Ascha Egerton at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Egerton, in the second ward. During the evening Miss Estella Bennett, who was to leave the day following for California, was presented with an elegant music case. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Miss Elizabeth Sundman and Mr. James Steele were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Steele. The ceremony was performed by Clerk Eliza Gee in the presence of the immediate family, after which a reception was given to the young couple.

Miss Lydia and Nettie Knudsen left Saturday for Provo. The former will return in a few days, but Miss Nettie has accepted a position as teacher in one of the district schools of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Conover will leave Monday for a week's visit at Mantt.

Sheila and Mattie, members of the Young Women's association entertained about fifty young people at the ward house Tuesday evening. Games were indulged in and refreshments were served.

Miss Elizabeth Craig returned early in the week from her home in Wyoming. She will continue to reside at the public schools.

Dr. A. J. Stewart is spending ten days in Utah, visiting with his friends and attending a family reunion at Benjamin.

George Clemenson and wife returned this week from Utah county, where they spent ten days the guests of relatives.

Judge Harding, who is visiting with his son, George W. Craig, is in the city for a few days.

Mrs. J. E. Booth entertained at the beautiful Edgewood farm Friday in honor of Mrs. Lillie Saxey and Mr. Joseph Brimhall.

Miss Jennie Jones, delightfully entertained at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jones, 41 S. Second East, Monday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Lillie Saxey and Mr. Joseph Brimhall.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Roberts, Jr., left the fore part of the week for California, where he will continue to reside.

John Roberts, who has been on the coast for some time, returned to Lehi.

Linger Longer club at her home Wednesday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers. About twenty young people made merry the evening with games and music. Daily refreshments were served.

Miss Nellie Thurgood of Eureka is visiting with friends in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodge Marshall have left for California, where they expect to reside for the present.

Mrs. J. W. Bailey entertained a number of her lady friends Tuesday evening at her home, 51 S. Fourth street, in honor of Mrs. Nellie Thurgood of Eureka. A pleasant afternoon was passed in social chat. Refreshments were served.

The Provo Commercial club entertained the members of the experimental farm commission on their recent visit to our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Colorado spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Graham.

The Nineteenth Century club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Sam Schwab, on Academy avenue, on Friday afternoon for the third meeting of this season. The following excellent papers were given: "Emancipation Struggles," by Mrs. Buckle; "Vacation Echoes," by Miss Hirs; "Thomas Ruggles left Wednesday for Blackfoot, Idaho, for a few days' visit.

PROVO.

The fruit festival and musical given by the Y. M. C. A. of the sixth ward Tuesday evening was in every way a grand success. The large assembly room was transformed into a perfect garden with its floral decorations and long tables laden with fruit and melons, of which was most artistically arranged.

Miss Estelle Bennett left Friday for Baltimore, Md., where she will spend the next few years studying music.

Miss Sarah Giles has returned home after a couple of weeks spent visiting friends in Idaho.

Miss Beulah Bachman is home again after an absence of two months spent visiting through California and Oregon. She is looking well and reports a most delightful visit.

Miss Lottie Walker, accompanied by Miss Grace Dunn visited her parents in American Fork Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hyrum Jensen, formerly of this city but now residing at Nephi, was visiting with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Adams, for a few days this week.

Mrs. Louisa McBride has returned from a most enjoyable trip to Provo.

Miss Cora Ward left the first of the week for Mt. Pleasant, where she has accepted a position as a teacher in one of the district schools of that place.

Mrs. W. H. Adams is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. H. Adams, in Denver for a few weeks.

The young ladies of the M. I. A. of the fifth ward gave a very pleasing social at their ward house Tuesday evening. Games, refreshments and dancing were enjoyed by a large number of young people of the ward.

Senator Smith was accompanied by Congressman Howell and Postmaster Clove, together with two newspaper representa-

William Ellerton on the 20th of the present month, but owing to the young man being ill with appendicitis, the wedding has been postponed indefinitely.

Rev. Samuel Allison of the I. M. E. church was married at his family home from Chester to this city.

Miss Marie Musig has been engaged as a teacher in the public schools of Castle Dale. She left for that place Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Christensen have moved from Mt. Pleasant to this city for the winter.

Miss Blanche Pehrson visited with friends in Mantt this week. The Misses Maud and Hazel Greaves returned Saturday from Salt Lake City, where they have been spending a part of their summer vacation.

Thomas Fauth is visiting with relatives and friends in Elsinore.

Miss Clara Brienholt, Thorwald Brienholt and Clara Hansen visited with relatives and friends in Redmond Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Christine Mickelson and Miss Anna Mickelson have been visiting friends in Ephraim Thursday.

Mrs. Myrtle Pehrson and Miss Alice Lund were visiting with friends in Mantt this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Beal left Friday for Salt Lake, where Mr. Beal has been engaged as a teacher in the public schools. Mr. and Mrs. Lehi Pehrson, Jr. of Salina are guests of Mrs. Fred Andersen.

PARK CITY.

A very quiet wedding took place Saturday afternoon in Heber, when Miss Myrtle Whitehead and Bonaventura Deacon, both of this place, were united in holy matrimony. Rev. D. F. Grabill performed the ceremony and the young couple returned to their home in Heber.

Miss Lillie Frazier returned to her duties at the Heber school Monday, after a visit of eight days with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Frazier, and her parents, at Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. French of Chicago are spending the summer at this place.

MT. PLEASANT.

Mrs. Olof Rosenfeld returned early in the week from a visit of five or six weeks in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamel and son were down during the week from Provo.

Mrs. E. E. Coffin came down early in the week and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. O. F. Wall, Mr. Coffin joined her Friday.

Andrew Madson, sr., returned Monday from a Salt Lake trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Anderson are planning the wedding of Miss Marie Hansen and Neelie Gunderson, a well known young couple of this place, which will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Anderson, on Tuesday.

Miss Lillie Frazier returned to her duties at the Heber school Monday, after a visit of eight days with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Frazier, and her parents, at Eureka.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig returned early in the week from their home in Wyoming. She will continue to reside at the public schools.

Dr. A. J. Stewart is spending ten days in Utah, visiting with his friends and attending a family reunion at Benjamin.

George Clemenson and wife returned this week from Utah county, where they spent ten days the guests of relatives.

Judge Harding, who is visiting with his son, George W. Craig, is in the city for a few days.

Mrs. J. E. Booth entertained at the beautiful Edgewood farm Friday in honor of Mrs. Lillie Saxey and Mr. Joseph Brimhall.

Miss Jennie Jones, delightfully entertained at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jones, 41 S. Second East, Monday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Lillie Saxey and Mr. Joseph Brimhall.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Roberts, Jr., left the fore part of the week for California, where he will continue to reside.

John Roberts, who has been on the coast for some time, returned to Lehi.

Linger Longer club at her home Wednesday evening. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers. About twenty young people made merry the evening with games and music. Daily refreshments were served.

Miss Nellie Thurgood of Eureka is visiting with friends in Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lodge Marshall have left for California, where they expect to reside for the present.

Mrs. J. W. Bailey entertained a number of her lady friends Tuesday evening at her home, 51 S. Fourth street, in honor of Mrs. Nellie Thurgood of Eureka. A pleasant afternoon was passed in social chat. Refreshments were served.

The Provo Commercial club entertained the members of the experimental farm commission on their recent visit to our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Colorado spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Graham.

The Nineteenth Century club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Sam Schwab, on Academy avenue, on Friday afternoon for the third meeting of this season. The following excellent papers were given: "Emancipation Struggles," by Mrs. Buckle; "Vacation Echoes," by Miss Hirs; "Thomas Ruggles left Wednesday for Blackfoot, Idaho, for a few days' visit.

LOGAN.

A pretty social event of the week was the reception held at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Graham, in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, in Salt Lake City, are now residing in Logan.

make this city their home for the winter. Mr. Dunyon has been engaged as principal of the public schools of this city.

Mrs. E. P. Thomander visited with relatives and friends in Richfield this week. Joseph Beck has moved to his family home from Chester to this city.

Miss Marie Musig has been engaged as a teacher in the public schools of Castle Dale. She left for that place Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Christensen have moved from Mt. Pleasant to this city for the winter.

Miss Blanche Pehrson visited with friends in Mantt this week. The Misses Maud and Hazel Greaves returned Saturday from Salt Lake City, where they have been spending a part of their summer vacation.

Thomas Fauth is visiting with relatives and friends in Elsinore.

Miss Clara Brienholt, Thorwald Brienholt and Clara Hansen visited with relatives and friends in Redmond Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Christine Mickelson and Miss Anna Mickelson have been visiting friends in Ephraim Thursday.

Mrs. Myrtle Pehrson and Miss Alice Lund were visiting with friends in Mantt this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Beal left Friday for Salt Lake, where Mr. Beal has been engaged as a teacher in the public schools. Mr. and Mrs. Lehi Pehrson, Jr. of Salina are guests of Mrs. Fred Andersen.

BINGHAM.

The concert given Tuesday evening by the Order of Washington under the direction of Mrs. Stella Fraucher Robinson, recently of Denver, Colo., was one of the most enjoyable musical treats ever given to a Bingham audience. Mrs. Robinson's rare ability as a pianist and Bingham's ever eager concertgoers, Mrs. Albert Holsten, delirious with delight, while the glee quartette held a prominent place in the musical entertainment.

Miss Dottie Lashbrook of Salt Lake is visiting with friends in Bingham. Mrs. Frank Strighum left Saturday for a two months' visit with her sister, Mrs. George Strighum, at Yakima, Wash.

Mrs. Elmer Hill was at the Junction and the capital Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Elmer Hill is at the Junction during the week.

Mrs. Ernest Bush is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKenize, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. George Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Jack James and Mr. Wilkins of Highland Park were at the capital Tuesday to attend the Gillespie-Cates wedding. Mrs. Anne Kuchel of Dalton and Mrs. Lark is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Rice.

Dr. A. Hollander spent several days at Zion during the week.

The J. O. O. P. No. 21 royally entertained the Lower Bingham lodge No. 10, Monday evening. Several conveyances were sent to the upper hall, where an informal good time was had. Speech-making and a most elaborate lunch were served. About thirty guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dary Clay left the first of the week for Sandusky, O., called there by the illness of Mr. Clay's brother, Mr. Monroe, supreme chief of the Rathbone lodge of Sandusky, O., visited the lodge organized here Tuesday evening and ably assisted in their efforts and gave them many helpful thoughts for the new and energetic lodge.

Mrs. Anton Norton, most excellent chief; Mrs. W. W. Brecken, excellent senior; Mrs. Seales, excellent junior; Mrs. Hake, excellent master; Mrs. George Christensen, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Francis Lehman, mistress of finance; Mrs. Cathrow, protector; Mrs. Heberger, guard of outer temple; Mrs. Adams, past chief.

Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald pleasantly entertained at dinner Thursday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Jensen and children were up from West Jordan Wednesday, guests of Mrs. Michael Fitzgerald.

Charles List of Wheeling, W. Va., is a guest of Jay Mitchell family.

Mrs. C. H. Hair planned a most successful surprise and farewell party in honor of her mother, Mrs. Hair, at her home Thursday evening. Mrs. Hair leaves shortly for her home in Heber. The evening was most pleasantly spent in music and social chat. A bounteous lunch was served to a large number of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruck left Tuesday for a visit to their home in Heber. The social event of the week was the farewell party given Thursday evening.

James Monson is in Provo and Salt Lake a part of the week.

Early returned Friday from a trip to Mexico.

Misses Mabel and Georgia Borg left Wednesday for Provo, where they will attend school this winter.

Mrs. H. J. Wallis and son were down from Salt Lake for a few days. Mrs. Joseph Proctor, a sister of Mrs. Wallis, who is well known in the United States navy and is home for a short visit.

Thomas Harrison, a down from Salt Lake, the guest of Mrs. Edith Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Webster Greene returned this week from the Portland fair, where they have been on a visit with their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Thatcher returned this week from a pleasant visit with St. Valley friends.

Moroni Price of Smithfield visited Logan friends this week.

Secretary Bevel of the Agricultural college, Mrs. Bevel, and Misses Fisher and Holmquist are at home again after a very pleasant trip to Portland and the coast.

Joe Bithell returned this week from a month's visit with friends in Rexburg and Pocatello.

Professor J. W. Boile, the